B Sharp Open Meeting.

The musicale given by the B Sharp Club to their friends Monday afternoon at the Knights of Pythias hall, was a rare treat to all attending. It has been the custom of the club to invite friends from time to time to open meetings; this eclipsed all others. The choruses were considered the specialties, but every piece was special art. Too much cannot be said of this club—starting years ago, soaring higher and higher each year—until now the ability of it is known over the state. Palestine may well be proud of these artists. The following program was rendered at the meeting:

Chorus, "The Night Has a Thousand Eyes," F. Lynes—Club.
Chorus, "Hong Kong Romance," Hadley—Club.

Piano, Staccato Etude, Bohm—Miss O'Flynn.
Voice, Serenade, Braga (with violin obligato)—Mrs. Sparkman.

Piano duo, Polo—Misses Burton and Windsor.
Chorus, "Rock-a-by Lady," Field—Prescott—Club.

Piano, Tarantelle No. 3, Liszt—Miss Stevens.
Violin, Mazurka de Concert, Ovid

Musin—Mrs. Ben Jackson.

Voice, (a) Villanelle, Del Aqua; (b) The Sweet o' the Year, Wellesly—Mrs. Grigsby.

Piano, Le Reveil d'Amour, Moskow-ski—Mrs. Pusch.

Chorus, "Whirl and Twirl," Wagner—Club.

Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Fannie E. Walker to Mr. Albert Mathis Firebaugh takes place this evening at 7:30 p. m. at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. H. Doyle, 407 South Sycamore street. Miss Fannie is the daughter of the deceased Dr. L. A. Walker, who was a prominent physician of Palestine. She is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McMillan, and is a young lady of personal charm and culture, one of our summer graduates. She has many friends in the city and county. Mr. Firebaugh formerly lived in Palestine, but is now in business at Austin. He also is popular and well known in Palestine. They have the congratulations of a host of friends.

Euchre Club.

Mrs. Jonas Levy entertained the Euchre Club Thursday afternoon of last week. Four tables were arranged for the players. Mrs. Ben Landau was awarded the head prize, a handsome drawn work center piece. Miss Estella Ash received the consolation, a bottle of toilet water. Mrs. Max Davidson of Houston was awarded the guest prize, a piece of drawn work. After this dainty covers were laid and a luncheon served: Deviled crabs, wafers, smoked tongue sandwiches, olives, coffee, chocolate, cake.

The out-of-town guests were Mesdames Mavis Davidson, Houston, and Lowenthal of Marshall, Trier of New York. Club members: Mesdames H. Horwits, Barney Pearlstone, M. Halporn, Jonas Levy, W. N. Klein, Leo Davidson, Ben Landau, Julius Goldberg, H. Dreyfus, Misses Stella Ash and Eva Landau.

Mrs. Levy was assisted by Mrs. Halporn in giving a happy afternoon to all present.

Self Culture Club.

Mrs. Flanagan was hostess and leader of the Self Culture Club Monday afternoon.

Lesson—Draper, Chapter VII.
Original Idea—By Leader.

Dixie Club.

Mrs. W. B. Robinson was hostess of the Dixie Club yesterday afternoon. Leader—Miss Conerly.

Lesson—Act I, "As You Like It." This was the first lesson of the Shakespeare course.

Heralding Christmas.

Miss Willie Jameson entertained with a beautiful house party Monday night. The following young ladies and guests out of the city spent the night at the beautiful Jameson home: Miss Lois Broyles and her guest, Miss Julia Barnard of Asheville, N. C.; Miss Bernice Dalley and guest, Miss Ethel Crownover of Chicago; Miss Clytie Harris, guest of Miss Willie Jameson. The young ladies enjoyed themselves as all do, have ever, and always will, until after supper, when the following beaux called to break the monotony as only beaux can: Messrs. Fred Broyles, Edwin Ezell, Evans Swann, Billie Jenkins, George and Charlie Price. With such a merry party of young folks, the Jameson home was bright. There were open fires, music, Christmas decorations, and a Christmas surprise. All were invited to the back parlor, where a miniature Christmas tree awaited them, laden with beautiful and elaborate decorations, and a gift for each one. This surprise charmed all. Miss Willie was assisted by her sisters, Mesdames Lev, Frederick and M. A. Davey, in entertaining and serving delicious refreshments. It was a happy evening, a foretaste of Christmas joys.

Birthday Joys.

Little Anabel Thomas was five years old Monday and her aunt, Miss Josie Watts, gave her a beautiful party. Quite a crowd of little ones were present to do homage to the day. All kinds of childish games were enjoyed. Bags of popcorn were hidden and the little ones told to hunt them, the one finding the greatest number to be the prize winner. Three little tots tied—Dorothy Dobbs, Donna Barrett, and Ruby Morris. All drew straws, Dorothy Dobbs winning, and receiving a doll's coiffure set. Chocolate, cake, fruits and candy were enjoyed by the little ones. It was sweet to see the glee of all. Anabel received a great many gifts, and no queen could be prouder or happier.

The Brides.

The Brides surprised Mrs. Floro Bartholomew McLeod Saturday afternoon. One of the Brides phoned her that she and the baby were coming to spend the afternoon, but later on all came, bringing luncheon with them. Two or three went to the kitchen, and soon Russian tea and a full menu was prepared while Mrs. McLeod was getting her breath at the surprise. A happy afternoon was spent together by the brides: Mesdames Howard Hearne Burkitt, Lizzie Jackson Davenport, Corrie Jowers Bowdon, Floro Bartholomew McLeod, Mary Patrick Jackson, Mattie Jameson Davey, Bess Jameson Frederick, Mary Reeves Lehman, Lois Lake Shapard, Carrie Gardner Sewell, Grace Gould, Wright, Mary Ezell Greenwood, Gusie May Stafford Smullen.

Our Girls in Austin Honored.

The following is from the Austin news in Sunday's Houston Post: "One of the delightful affairs of the week was the dance given Wednesday evening at the governor's mansion by Misses Sammie Belle and Maydelle Campbell in honor of their cousin, Miss Sammie Smith, of Longview. Misses Margeurite Morris and Mattie Cad Gardner of Palestine." "Miss Margaret Runge favored Miss Mattie Gardner of Palestine with a card party Tuesday afternoon. Miss Fannie Campbell, Miss Myra Smith and Miss Julia Richardson were fortunate in the contest. Later a musical program was rendered by Mrs. Harry Bickler, Miss Myra Smith and Miss Margaret Morris of Palestine."

IMMEDIATE RELIEF

For Coughs, Colds, Sore Throats and Hoarseness, By Using Hyomei.

When you catch cold you want to get rid of it as quickly as you can. You don't want to lie around the house for a week swallowing nauseating drugs. You know when you do this that you are not only making your own life miserable, but you are a nuisance to every one about you.

Why not avoid all this? Why not relieve your cold in five minutes? Why not cure it over night? You can do it by using Hyomei, the sure and guaranteed cure for colds, coughs, sore throat, catarrh, bronchitis and asthma.

Hyomei (pronounced High-o-mei) is medicated and antiseptic air. You breathe it into the lungs through a small pocket inhaler, and its soothing influence as it passes over the inflamed membrane of the respiratory tract, stops the mucous discharge, allays the inflammation, and the cold is cured. A complete Hyomei outfit costs $1.00, and Bratton Drug Co. will refund your money if it fails to cure.
